This class is available for students who are eligible to attend Woonona High School.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Woonona High School is a vibrant and innovative, proudly comprehensive high school that values strong community partnerships. Student success is driven by excellence in teaching and learning delivered by world class educators in a safe and supportive learning environment. Our students are confident, creative individuals who enrich our local and global community.

THE CAPA ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

The CAPA Enrichment Class is designed to provide students with a holistic CAPA experience that fosters their abilities, creativity and collaboration within and across each discipline of the arts. Whilst this program provides students with all the core subjects needed to fulfil the requirements of Year 7 at high school, they benefit from additional teaching time in the Creative and Performing Arts encompassing the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) Dance, Drama, Music and Visual Arts syllabus content. All students at Woonona High School are also offered a large range of CAPA extra and co-curricular opportunities and from Year 8-12, students can choose to study a wide variety of CAPA electives including HSC Dance, Drama, Music and Art (depending on numbers).

THE PROCESS

All students applying for the CAPA Enrichment Class are required to submit a video or digital portfolio of their work and attend an audition workshop. The workshops run on this day are designed to observe students' ability in their chosen discipline and their ability to work creatively and collaboratively with their peers, within and across the CAPA disciplines, and are always lots of fun.

This document contains all the information regarding the application process. We are confident that this program of study and the positive academic environment at Woonona High School will foster your child's talents and open the door for them to achieve their very best.

Sample Drama Monologues – Select one or prepare your own choice:

1) Jack: Please don't poke my eyes out! Wait—don't leave! I mean, unless that's what you were going to do, poke my eyes out—were you? But otherwise, just, just stay. I—I—I mean, you understand my worrying about that, right? But—well, you don't seem like those birds. Right? And, even if you are, I'm not like those girls. So. It's just—I really am happy to see you. I'm getting a little, well, maybe a little anxious. I don't know if you can tell, but, I'm kind of a little bit stuck up here.

See, I didn't...really...think that I'd make it this far up. I didn't really think it through at all. My mom keeps telling me that's my problem, and I guess it is. I just...saw it, and I've always been a bit of a climber, my mom said. When I was nine months old, she found me sitting on top of the brown cow in the barn one morning. I guess we all have our strengths. I've never really considered myself afraid of heights before, but, it's not really the climbing up that scares me. It's the getting down, Black Crow. It seemed so easy getting here—just put one foot on the branch—if you can call it a branch. They sure don't seem like branches now— looking down. Oh, and, I've tried going down already. I put my foot on a branch, but it seems slippery now. See? It's like the sludge at the bottom of the pig trough. And you do not want be climbing down from the clouds on pig sludge! I'm not a bright boy. They all tell me that, but that is one thing I do know.

2) ALICE: [Angrily] Why, how impolite of him. I asked him a civil question, and he pretended not to hear me. That's not at all nice. [Calling after him] I say, Mr. White Rabbit, where are you going? Hmmm. He won't answer me. And I do so want to know what he is late for. I wonder if I might follow him. Why not? There's no rule that I mayn't go where I please. I--I will follow him. Wait for me, Mr. White Rabbit. I'm coming, too! [Falling] How curious. I never realized that rabbit holes were so dark . . . and so long . . . and so empty. I believe I have been falling for five minutes, and I still can't see the bottom! Hmph! After such a fall as this, I shall think nothing of tumbling downstairs. How brave they'll all think me at home. Why, I wouldn't say anything about it even if I fell off the top of the house! I wonder how many miles I've fallen by this time. I must be getting somewhere near the center of the earth. I wonder if I shall fall right through the earth! How funny that would be. Oh, I think I see the bottom. Yes, I'm sure I see the bottom. I shall hit the bottom, hit it very hard, and oh, how it will hurt!

3) Greetings your Majesty

Greetings Your Majesty. I am but a humble servant of yours. Let me just say what an honour, nay privilege it is to be called upon this evening as your Jester and hopefully future Jester for many more nights. I am a small bug under which your mighty boot rests, and hopefully does not squish. It is my manifest desire tonight to perform a showcase of comedic skits that encapsulates the nature of the Jester. I hope that you do not snore nor fall asleep during my performance as so many noble courts have done before you. You are a most gracious benefactor.

Stretching

Greetings friends...you may call me Excentrique. Or, in my native tongue Intetlahuehuetzquitcahoan.

My vocation in life is to make everyone happy.

My jokes started with Punch, Judy and a crocodile that was snappy.

I am here for your entertainment!

Dear sinners all! Man's life is but a jest,

A Dream, a shadow, bubbles, air, a vapour at the best.

In a thousand pounds of law I find not a single ounce of love.

A blind man killed the parson's cow, in shotting at the dove.

The fool who eats till he is sick must fast till he is well.

The wooer who can flatter most will bear away the bell.

4) Hitchhike

Melbourne to Mooloolaba

Adapted from Planes, Trains and Elephants by Brian Thacker

Our driver wasn't sure of his name or where he was from. When I asked him his name he said, 'Er...um...Paul'. He lived in 'er...um...Altona'. Still he seemed nice enough and his car was virtually brand new. He must have been doing all right. He only looked about 18. The car was a Nissan something or something and still had the plastic covering on the backseat. Best of all, though, we'd only had to wait 10 minutes for our first lift.

We were hitchhiking 1700kms from Melbourne to Mooloolaba. I was travelling with my friend 'Mad Dog' Morgan, so called because he looked like a murderous bushranger. We were going to be staying at another friend's house for a month or so. We had 4 days to get to Mooloolaba in time for New Year's Eve. 'Really easy', Mad Dog had said. He was an experienced hitchhiker this was my first time.

Er. ..um... Paul was driving to the Gold Coast. It was only a few hours drive from there to Mooloolaba. Mad Dog was right. This was really easy. The only annoying thing was Mad Dog had the front seat. I was sticking to the plastic seat covering in the back. I was regretting wearing shorts. I wasn't looking forward to stopping. I didn't think I'd be able to get unstuck
